Employee Assistance Program

A Corporate Health Management service.

Supporting Your Team's Wellbeing & Success.

Partnership with D'Accord

At CHM we understand the importance of a healthy and thriving workforce. That is why we partner with D'Accord Occupational Assistance Services. Their Employee Assistance Program (EAP) service is designed to provide timely and cost-effective support to your employees and their immediate family members. With their team of highly qualified psychologists and counsellors, we offer comprehensive counselling services tailored to meet the individual, team, and organisational needs.

Our EAP service extends to your employees' immediate family members, recognising the interconnectedness of personal and work lives. We believe that a holistic approach to wellbeing leads to enhanced productivity and a thriving work environment. We provide our services in person, via phone, or through online video sessions, ensuring flexibility and accessibility for your employees across different locations and time zones.

Our team is committed to staying current, ethical, and professional, keeping in mind the diverse cultural and humanistic needs of today's workplace. With a nationwide network of experienced professionals, D'Accord is equipped to deliver immediate, tailored support to your organisation. We understand that every organisation is unique, and we will work closely with you to develop an EAP that aligns with your specific needs and goals.
